Five Burglaries in Westside of Eugene

SUMMARY: Eugene Police are investigating five burglaries of commercial properties that occurred overnight on January 21.

Eugene Police are looking into any connection between a series of burglaries that occurred overnight January 21 to January 22. Officers responded to five different businesses throughout the morning and early afternoon of January 22 when the Westside businesses called to report the thefts.

All five of the business report similar modes of entry through either smashed windows or pried doors. In one incident police have the suspect description of a white male between 20- and 30-years-old, wearing a black baseball hat with a white front, black jacket, light blue jeans and black shoes.

The five burglaries occurred at the following locations:

Daisy's Mexican Bakery, 2160 West 11th Avenue
UPS Store, 65 Division Avenue
UPS Store, 4325 Commerce Street
Super Taco, 3656 West 11th Avenue
Fantasy Nails, 3025 West 11th Avenue

Anyone who may have information in these cases or who may recognize the suspect description is being asked to contact the Eugene Police tip line number of 541.682.8888.
